Camp Happiness We had another wonderful summer at Camp Happiness. It was filled with lots of laughs and lots of fun! The camper's at all three sites enjoyed making new friends, seeing old friends and getting to know new staff! Each week they went on fun and exciting field trips!! This past summer, participants went swimming at different community pools and at Hinckley Lake, went to the Cleveland Zoo, enjoyed local parks, and had visits from local police and firemen! The Beck Center in Lakewood joined the Lakewood site for music and art! All three sites enjoyed getting together for our summer Field Day with the Alhambra and the all sites day with Resurrection Church!

We were lucky to have a tremendous staff this year. They enthusiastically came to work each day with new and fun ideas! They made the camp experience exactly what it should be for the campers – Fun!! Thank you to our staff for your great work and dedication this summer! The campers are already looking forward to coming back next year!

We are very grateful for the financial support we have received from the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities, Catholic Charities, the International Order of the Alhambra, and you, who have believed in our programs since 1966. Thanks to your faith, over 300 children and adults experienced camp this summer!
