Online Shopping Opportunities

Catholic Relief Services Fair Trade: <http://www.crsfairtrade.org/products/> Find coffee, chocolate and handcrafts. The Catholic Relief Services Fair Trade Program creates opportunities for you to bring the values of our faith to bear in the marketplace, and to make consumer choices that help lift our brothers and sisters around the world out of poverty

Around the World Treasures: <http://aroundtheworldtreasures.com/> Around the World Treasures is a unique shop with handcrafted items from various areas in the world. It offers items from more than twenty countries, supporting as many artisan groups. In the shop there is merchandise from many Fair Trade Producers including: Marketplace of India, A Thread of Hope, Mayaworks, Worldfinds, Serrv and Mountcastle International Trading Company.

Beads 4 Peace, International Peace Initiatives: <http://beads4peace.com/> Beads 4 Peace (B4P) is an organization dedicated to aiding women in Africa. The beautiful handcrafted beaded necklaces, bracelets, and earrings come from a group of Aids Widows in Meru, Kenya. The proceeds from the jewelry sales help support the women of Meru, who use the monies to pay for school fees, uniforms, and supplies for their children. African women know that an education is key to the future success of their children.

Canaan Fair Trade: <http://www.canaanfairtrade.com/> Canaan Fair Trade sells olive oil and other delicacies produced by over 1,700 small farmers, organized in village cooperatives and represented by the Palestine Fair Trade Association (PFTA). We supply bulk as well as finished and packaged olive oil and other goods to Europe, North America, Australia, Asia and the Middle East. Our olive oil and all of our products come with a Palestinian Certificate of Origin. A large and growing portion of them are certified Organic.

Fair Trade Connections: <http://www.fairtradeconnections.com.au/> Welcome to our Fair Trade Store. Our products are unique, handmade and high quality craft items sourced from Fair Trade organizations in Africa, Bangladesh, India, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Skirts, bags and jewelry. Mayan Connection pays fair compensation for our artisans' work. They have determined a fair trade wage by discussing it directly with artisans, as well as taking into account the national minimum wage, standard of living, and average incomes in the community.

Global Gallery, the online source for posters and fine art: <http://www.globalgallery.com/>

Kantara: Moroccan Rugs - http://kantararugs.com/Kantara_Traditional_Moroccan_Rugs.html

Kantara is the premiere source for fair trade, handwoven Moroccan carpets in the United States. Kantara curates its collections directly from women's weaving cooperatives in Morocco. As a result of its relationship with the artisans, Kantara ensures that its products are of the highest quality and with the most captivating designs

Maggie's Organics: <http://maggiesorganics.com/> Maggie's Organics was founded in 1992 on the premise that workers should be treated ethically and that clothing should be durable, affordable, and constructed of environmentally sustainable materials. The apparel line, which includes our Pants, Wraps, Hoodies, Dresses, Tanks, Camisoles and Scarves, was recently Fair Trade Certified™. There is also a full line of Socks for the whole family that are made in the USA and Legwear for women and children.

One Mango Tree: <http://www.onemangotree.com/> Uses a fair trade model to create sustainable jobs for women in impoverished and conflict-ridden areas of the world. They produce hand-made apparel, jewelry and handbags.

Trade Justice Mission: <http://okoajewelry.org/> This is a non-profit that brings microfinance and fair trade opportunities to sex-trafficked and marginalized women in asia, Africa and North America. Co-operatives of women create Okoa jewelry which is then marketed and sold in the US. All profits go back to the women.
